The Society for the Humanities and Department of Art present:

FROM EARTH ART

40TH ANNIVERSARY WORKSHOP

The occasion for this celebratory event is the confluence of this year’s annual research theme at the Society for the Humanities, “Water: A Critical Concept for the Humanities,” with the 40th anniversary of the Cornell exhibition, Earth Art, which took place in the A.D. White House when it was the home of the A.D. White Museum of Art.

FEATURED GUEST: THOMAS LEAVITT, FORMER DIRECTOR, A.D. WHITE MUSEUM OF ART

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17

1:30 - 2:15 p.m., Welcoming Remarks:
Timothy Murray, Director, Society for the Humanities
Patricia Phillips, Chair, Department of Art
Pamela Seymour Smith, “Reflections by Willoughby Sharp, Curator of Earth Art”
Renate Ferro, Department of Art,
“An Interactive Installation”

2:15 - 4:00 p.m., Celebrating Earth Art
Moderator: Buzz Spector, Department of Art
Marilyn Rivchin, Theatre/Film/Dance,
“Filming Earth Art”
Marin Sullivan, History of Art, U of Michigan,
“The Emergence of Earth Art: Cornell University, 1969”
Navjotika Kumar, History of Art, Kent State,
“Land art as and cataclysm”

4:30 p.m., Plenary Lecture
Dennis Oppenheim (Artist, NYC),
“Land Art and the Earth Art Show”

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18

9:15 - 11:00 a.m., Fluid Geographies
Moderator: Sam Baker, Society for the Humanities
Patricia Phillips, Department of Art, “Fluid Geographies: Public Art in Flux”
Stacy Levy, Artist, “The gristle of nature: celebrating what is left in our landscapes”

11:15 a.m. - 12:30 p.m., Digital Gardens
Moderator: Andrea Hammer, Landscape Architecture
Verena Andermatt Conley, Society for the Humanities/Harvard University,
“Place, Non-Place: How to Cultivate a Digital Garden”
Daniel Warner, Music, Hampshire College, “Never the Same River Twice: Landscape, Soundscape and Water”

2:00 - 4:00 p.m., Environmental Others
Moderator: Maria Fernandez, History of Art
Brandon Ballengee, Artist, NYC, “Sacred Monsters:
Biological Abstractions Sculpted by a Changing Environment”
Cary Peppermint and Christine Nadir, Art, Colgate University,
“Externalities: Wilderness and its Others”
Patricia Zimmermann, FLEFF, Ithaca College, “ECO-PUBLICS”

4:15 - 5:30 p.m., Panel Discussion: Timothy Murray, Patricia Phillips,
Dennis Oppenheim, Verena Andermatt Conley, and Christine Marran

CO-SPONSORS: THE ROSE GOULDEN LECTURE SERIES, CORNELL COUNCIL OF THE ARTS

TO ECO ART

A.D. White House
CORNELL UNIVERSITY