Sustaining the Humanities: Climates, Creatures, Geographies

Panelists:
Alexander Gordon (Anthropology)
Fortuitous Disasters: Pollution and Uncertainty in an Insurance Brokerage Firm on Wall Street

Catherine Kearns (Classics)
Fragmentary Landscapes and the Archaeology of Sustainability

Amy Lee Kohout (History)
Binoculars and Birdsong: Environmental History Outside the Archive

David Rojas (Anthropology)
Trading Pollution, Modeling Defacement: An Ethnography of Climate Policy Forums

Avery Slater (English)
The Psychogeography of Dust: Muriel Rukeyser and Gauley Bridge, West Virginia

Monday, April 14, 2014, 4:30pm
Guerlac Room, A. D. White House

Panelists are recipients of Sustainability Research Grants awarded by the Society for the Humanities Initiative on Sustainability via the Humanities and the Arts, which is the sponsor of this event, with support from the Atkinson Center for a Sustainable Future.