PUBLIC HUMANITIES

A colloquium with the Cornell University Graduate Student Public Humanities Fellows • light lunch will be provided

EMILY HONG (Anthropology)
The Making of Nobel, Nok, Dah: Refugee Subjectivity Through Sensory Ethnography & Feminist Oral History

PEREGRINE GERARD-LITTLE (Archaeology)
Archaeology and the Two-Row Wampum: Public Engagement with 17th Century Human-Landscape Relations in Iroquoia

CHRISTINE YAO (English)
Collage and Collaboration: Remembering the 19th Century Through Public Humanities

THURSDAY, APRIL 16
12:00 - 1:30 PM
ROOM 201
A.D. WHITE HOUSE